All Scout Nano Event

International Institute for Nanotechnology
Nanoscale Science and Engineering Center

Northwestern University, Evanston, IL

Saturday April 28, 2007 9:00 am - 1:00 pm

Learn about the exciting new field of Nanotechnology at this world-premiere research institute.
Meet and work with the scientists whose discoveries are affecting your future.
Enjoy pizza, pop, and talk with your scientist mentors.

- Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, and Venturers of high school age & with a keen interest in science are invited.
- Fee is $8 per attendee - plus lots of enthusiastic interest! Pizza party with scientists & staff included.
- To register or ask questions email Troop 309 ASM Mike Kleppinger at m.kleppinger@sbcglobal.net. Five Scouts maximum per unit. This event fills quickly and we want to accommodate as many Scouts with a strong interest in science or engineering as possible.
- Following acceptance your troop or crew will receive an information packet including directions for some interesting and fun advance research. This research will help you get more out of your visit – and it may win you a prize!
